RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On September 24, 2021, George Grace filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that that he suffered from Guillain-Barre Syndrome (“GBS”) as a result of an influenza vaccine he received on February 21, 2019. Petition at 1. Petitioner further alleges “that his symptoms have persisted well beyond the six-month period required to establish entitlement to compensation. Id. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On September 30, 2022, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent “has concluded that Petitioner’s claim satisfies the Vaccine Injury Table criteria for GBS resulting from a seasonal flu vaccine, with onset occurring between three and forty-two days after vaccination, with no more likely alternative diagnosis and no preponderant alternative cause.” Id. at 7. Respondent further agrees that “Petitioner’s injury lasted for more than six months.” Id.

In view of Respondent’s position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
